

A guide to using Open Athens

What is Open Athens?

The library has access to a large number of online resources which require a login each time you want to access them. To make this a little easier we have a service called Open Athens. Once you login to OA you can access these resources directly by clicking the titles of each resource.

Who can access Open Athens?

If you are an enrolled student you will have received an activation email which has an expiry date. If you haven't received an email or it has expired, please contact the library library@morling.edu.au and we will send you a new email.

Where can I find Open Athens?

A link to Open Athens can be found on the Library catalogue page here

The screenshot shows the Morling College Library website. A red arrow points from the text above to the 'Open Athens' link in the 'LIBRARY IS OPEN BY APPOINTMENT' section. The website header includes the Morling College logo and navigation links. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'LIBRARY IS OPEN BY APPOINTMENT', 'NEW BOOKS', 'HOW TO LOGIN', 'EXTRA THEOLOGY RESOURCES', 'OPEN ACCESS RESOURCES', 'LIBRARY RULES', and 'SEARCH TIPS'. The 'HOW TO LOGIN' section provides instructions on how to use the Open Athens service.

Login using your username which is morl and your student number e.g. morl200199999, and the password you created when you received the account activation email.

The screenshot shows the OpenAthens login page. It features a 'Sign in with an OpenAthens account' section with fields for 'Username' (containing 'morl200199999') and 'Password'. There is a 'Sign in' button and a link for 'Problems signing in?'. To the right, there is a 'Find your organisation' section with a search box containing the text 'Type the name of your organisation' and a search icon. At the bottom, there is a footer with a cookie consent message: 'By using this site you agree to us setting cookies. Please see our privacy and cookie information.'

Once you have signed in you will see a page like this, listing the online resources that can be accessed.

The screenshot shows the MyAthens Home page with the following sections:

- Favourite Resources: A section with a heading and a sub-heading, containing a link to the Resources section.
- Databases: A section with a heading and a sub-heading, containing links to EBSCO Databases, eBooks, and Journal Collections, ProQuest, and JSTOR Open Access eBooks.
- EBSCOhost Search Box: A search box with a search button.
- Resources: A section with a heading and a sub-heading, containing a list of journal titles such as Australian & New Zealand Journal of Family Therapy, Australian Psychologist, and others.

Now you can click on any of the links and access Proquest, EBSCO or JSTOR databases, and many ejournals.

You can also search for the journal titles in the library catalogue. For example 'biblical interpretation'
