

Help Sheet

Importing citations from Google Scholar to Endnote

1. Search in Google Scholar to generate a list of results
2. In the left pane of the results, click on the menu icon in the top left corner, then click on Settings.

3. In Settings, under Bibliography manager, click 'Show links to import citations into ...' and change the option to Endnote. Save.

4. A link – 'Import into EndNote' – now appears at the end of each citation. Click the link to download the citation into EndNote.
